Home-school agreement, 2020/21

'Explore, dream, discover; celebrating learning with the community'

Welcome to St Aidan's School!

We want every child to succeed. We believe that a close partnership between home and school is essential in providing children with the best possible education and chances in life. The Home-school agreement is one aspect of this partnership. It enables parents, carers, staff and pupils at St Aidan's to make a clear commitment to work together.

The agreement makes it clear what is expected of staff, parents, carers and pupils so that pupils will be able to work hard, achieve and be successful at our school and parents will be able to take an active part in their child's learning.

Should you ever have a concern or cause to complain about any aspect of school life, please see our Complaints procedure, available from the office or website.

The children's Golden Rules

- 1 We come to school on time every day.
- 2 We wear our school uniform with pride every day.
- 3 We work hard and try our best every day.
- 4 We are a healthy eating school: no sweets, no nuts, only water.
- 5 We try to be a sustainable school; we don't litter.
- 6 We enjoy play time: we do not play fight.
- 7 We are an anti-bullying school.
- 8 We respect and value each other's cultures, religions, race, gender, appearance and opinions.
- 9 We are polite to adults and our peers; we do not swear.
- 10 We are honest and do not cover up the truth.

Local off-site trips

From time to time, whole class or smaller group trips are arranged to local places of interest to enhance the curriculum. These trips may include walks to local schools, the library, places of worship and parks or bus journeys to local museums etc. and great care is always taken by teachers and support staff in supervising the children on such visits. However, because we will be taking your child off the school premises, we need your formal consent for such activities.

Rather than asking parents/carers each time, we are seeking general permission for these trips. (Individual permission requests will be sent to parents/carers for more specific all-day trips further afield that involve coach transport and packed lunches.)
